

2:45 – Aubree Dersken

I ran my first half marathon in 2010 and it was horrible. I didn't train well and I was in tears by mile 7, but I finished. I didn't run again until 2013, when on a whim I decided to sign up for a marathon. Six months later I finished my first marathon! The bucket list of one-and-done turned into five full marathons and counting. And now I have a 50K coming up. Half marathons are my favorite distance. My goal is 100 half marathons and I'm set to hit 50 half marathons completed this 2017 season.
